

Poison Center Education Programs

JoAnn Chambers-Emerson RN, BSN, CSPI
Certified Specialist in Poison Information
Education Coordinator - Poison Center,
Tampa General Hospital
(813) 844-7982 or 1-800-222-1222
email: jchamber@tgh.org
www.poisoncentertampa.org

Program length: individualized to meet your time limits.
Audience requirements: Minimum of 10 people.
AV requirements: LCD projector, sound speakers
Cost: free

Adult Presentations

What's Your Poison IQ? – (Interactive Quiz. Includes Poison Prevention Tips & First Aid)
The Poison Garden: Poisonous Plants & Critters (spiders, snakes, animals, bugs)
Party Drugs: Substances of Abuse (for adult audiences only)
Herbal & Prescription Medication Safety for Seniors
One Disaster after Another: storm-related poisonings
Tox Rocks: Team trivia competition about poison references in Rock & Roll music
When Bad Drugs Happen to Good People: Celebrities & medication abuse trends

Healthcare Professionals: (EMT/PEMT's, nurses, students)

Hitting Rock Bottom: Overdosed and in the ER.
Assessment and treatment from common medication overdoses
Cheap Highs: Assessment and treatment for Substances of Abuse
Toxic Time Bombs: Overview of poisons with delayed effects
Deadly in A Dose: One Pill can Kill
Overview of poisons deadly for toddlers if one dose or one swallow is taken
What's Your Poison IQ? Group quiz about perceptions of household product toxicity
The Poison Garden
Assessment and treatment after exposures to spiders, reptiles, insects, plants
Hazards of Herbal Product Interactions
Review of popular dietary supplements, case reports & hazards
Early Bird Special: Food Poisoning Buffet
Prevention, assessment and treatment of food poisoning
Chemical Weapons of Mass Destruction
Review of nerve gas, irritant gases, vesicants and plant toxins